Course Description:

This course looks critically at the life and work of selected writers who have been central to the development of the Unity Movement. Students have an opportunity to explore untapped resources in the Unity Archives.

Learning Objectives:

Upon completion of this courses, students will be able to:

1. Evaluate the key viewpoints of he theologians, poets and teachers studied in this course.
2. Compare and contrast elements in the various writings studied.
3. Analyze the significant contribution Unity thinkers made to the ongoing, wider theological dialogue.

The above learning objectives partially fulfill the following program outcomes for the Master of Divinity and Certificate of Unity Ministry:

Foundational Knowledge: Demonstrate professional competency through the integration of knowledge and methodology in the areas of scripture, theology, historical studies, communication, pastoral studies, leadership and administration.

Assignments:

Students will be required to write two 10-15 page papers based on archival research.
